MEMORANDUM NO. OVCAA-ECA 19-478a

TO: All Concerned

FROM:
VCAA Evangeline C. Amor, PhD
Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and UC CSAPG Chair

SUBJECT: 2019 UC CSAPG WORKSHOP RESOLUTIONS

At its 19-21 September 2019 workshop, the University Council Committee on Student Admissions, Progress, and Graduation (UC CSAPG) approved the following policies effective First Semester of AY 2019-2020:

1. Dropping. For students who never attended class to be "forced-drop";
2. Extension and Waiver of MRR of Graduate Students. For appeals for extension of MRR (college-level) to go through a graduate committee/council; and for appeals for waiver of MRR (CSAPG level) to go through college assembly. Further, the UC CSAPG reiterates its previous resolution (Memo No. ECA 15-21) to accept appeals of students for waivers of MRR provided that they have approved thesis proposals;
3. Graduation with honors despite underloading. For appeals for graduation with honors to go through college assembly;
4. Prerequisites. For undergraduate students with student numbers 2016 and below to be covered by a UC CSAPG moratorium dated 31 October 2019 which deems the prerequisite/s to courses satisfied; and for undergraduate students with student numbers 2017 and onwards to observe strict compliance with University rules on prerequisites; and
5. GE and NSTP-related appeals. For processing of appeals concerning GE and NSTP to be delegated to the General Education Center (GEC) Diliman and the National Service Training Program (NSTP) Office, respectively, for the final action of the UC CSAPG Chair.

Kindly note that this memorandum supersedes Memorandum No. OVCAA-ECA 19-478 issued on 06 November 2019.

Please be guided accordingly.

Thank you very much.
